CSLT - Board Minutes - January 16,2020 Team Reports for December, 2019

ADMINISTRATION

Sign is beautiful, lit or unlit. Identifying a way to make it graffiti-proof, or at least graffiti-resistant. Hardware has been obtained to get security cameras working. IBE has been contacted to come show us how to use it. So far, we haven't connected.

The monthly Board Agenda, production of the Board Minutes and uploading to the newsletter and website has been handed off. Thank you, Mariann M! Wendie A continues to stuff the bulletins most weeks. Thanks, Wendie! Maria S. uploads the online calendar & blog, and makes the Sacred Cinema bulletin insert. Thank you Maria!

Kim, our new bookkeeper, continues to tidy up our accounts and preparing to shift over to Vantage West. We intend to move accounts to Vantage West in January 2020.

ECCLESIASTICAL CORE

Our Sunday morning meditation leaders are continuing to shift and some new volunteers have taken charge when one of our scheduled meditation leaders did not appear.

Lysa Allman-Baldwin spoke and presented a workshop about dealing with Holiday Blues on December 1st. Six people attended.

During December services, and during the Solstice Candlelighting, we recognized the light found in all faith and philosophical traditions.

Submitted by: Rev. Janis

EDUCATION CORE

The December Wednesday night classes continued, the topic was Gratitude Becomes Us, with 6-8 persons attending. January plans include a Stillness & Supper meditation, a Drum Circle, and the more-or-less standard January non-certificated 'basics' classes.

Michael Tucker continued his Emma Curtis Hopkins Scientific Christian Mental Practice bookstudy, late Sunday afternoon. Attendance is small, but the conversations are deep.

Keith Gorley completed an Eric Butterworth Unity of All Life bookstudy on Saturday mornings. Attendance varied between 4 and 9. His next book study will start in February on Ralph Waldo Trine's In Touch with the Infinite.

MUSIC/SOUND

We remain grateful for our stage band and our volunteer singers, and for the high quality music we enjoy every Sunday. Kristen Chandler Zimmerman sang one Sunday.

David Prouty and Rev Janis have recreated the CandleLighting service (and winter social) which took place at the Education Center on December 20th. The ritual was attended by 17 people, who had a great time. David and Chris (Wheeler) played music for the Endings & Beginnings ritual on the 31st. Attendance was about average with approximately 40 people attending. Ritual assistants were Shelly Dunn (@ burning bowl), Gregg Molzon & Marsha Merten (sentinel) and Jeannie Graham (future-welcomer)

David and the Orchestra are still working out how to replace the Orchestra's performance piece before Rev Janis's reminder with 7-8 minutes of congregational singing.
